Oshkosh Fire Chief Mike Stanley accepts position in Colorado
Oshkosh congratulates Chief Stanley, and thanks him for his service and contributions

OSHKOSH, Wis., January 9, 2025 – Oshkosh Fire Chief, Mike Stanley, has accepted the position of Deputy Fire Chief with the city of Greeley, Colorado. He will continue as Oshkosh Fire Chief through January 29th, 2025.

Oshkosh Interim City Manager John Fitzpatrick noted that, “Mike shared with me that although this was a difficult personal and professional decision for him, the opportunity with the city of Greeley will allow him to best assist a number of his family members that reside in his home state of Colorado.”

Chief Stanley has served as the Oshkosh Fire Chief since 2018. Prior to that, he worked in various positions for the city of Aurora, Colorado, with his most recent assignment being the Operations Division Commander, where he oversaw the Medical Branch and all Emergency Medical Services (EMS) for the 400 member Aurora Fire Rescue Department. He also earned an Associate Degree from Red Rocks Community College, a Bachelor’s Degree from Charter Oak State College, and a Master’s Degree from Colorado State University. Additionally, Chief Stanley has earned designation as a Chief Fire Officer (CFO) from the Center for Public Safety Excellence.

The city of Oshkosh wishes Mike the very best in the next chapter of his career, and thanks him for his service to the city.
